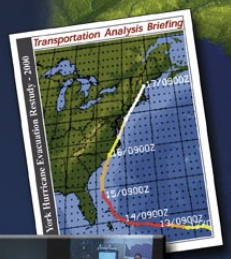
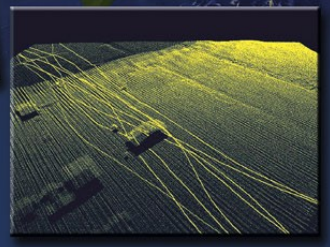
National Hurricane Program

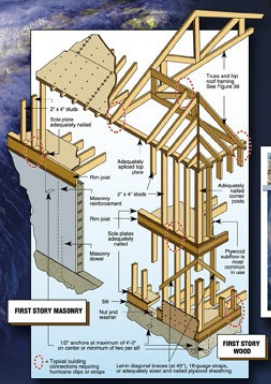
FEDERAL • STATE • LOCAL PARTNERSHIPS

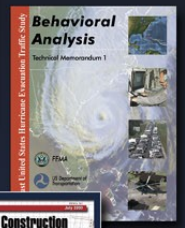
Response and Recovery

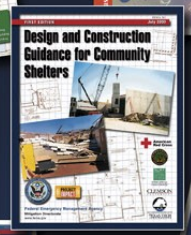
Helping communities and individuals repair damage, rebuild, and recover after hurricanes and coastal storms

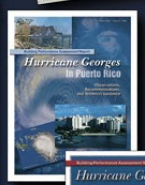


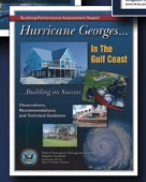


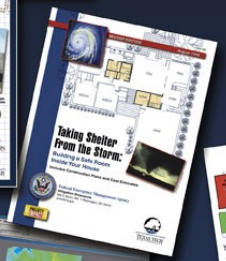












Mitigation

Reducing the damage caused by hurricane winds and flooding through improvements in the built environment

Planning, Training, and Preparedness

Taking action to lessen the impact of hurricanes and coastal storms on communities

Satellite images courtesy of NASA

FEMA

Hurricane Program Activities

- Hurricane Evacuation Study (HES) Funding/management
  - SLOSH
- Decision Making tool support
  - HURREVAC
- Hurricane Liaison Team/Evacuation Liaison Team
  - Connection to NHC, NWS, RFC, HPC…
  - Connection to state and local decision makers

FEMA

Hurricane Liaison Team

Mission:

- Support hurricane response operations through the rapid exchange of critical information between the National Hurricane Center and emergency managers at all levels.

Team:

- FEMA staff, National Weather Service meteorologists and hydrologists

FEMA

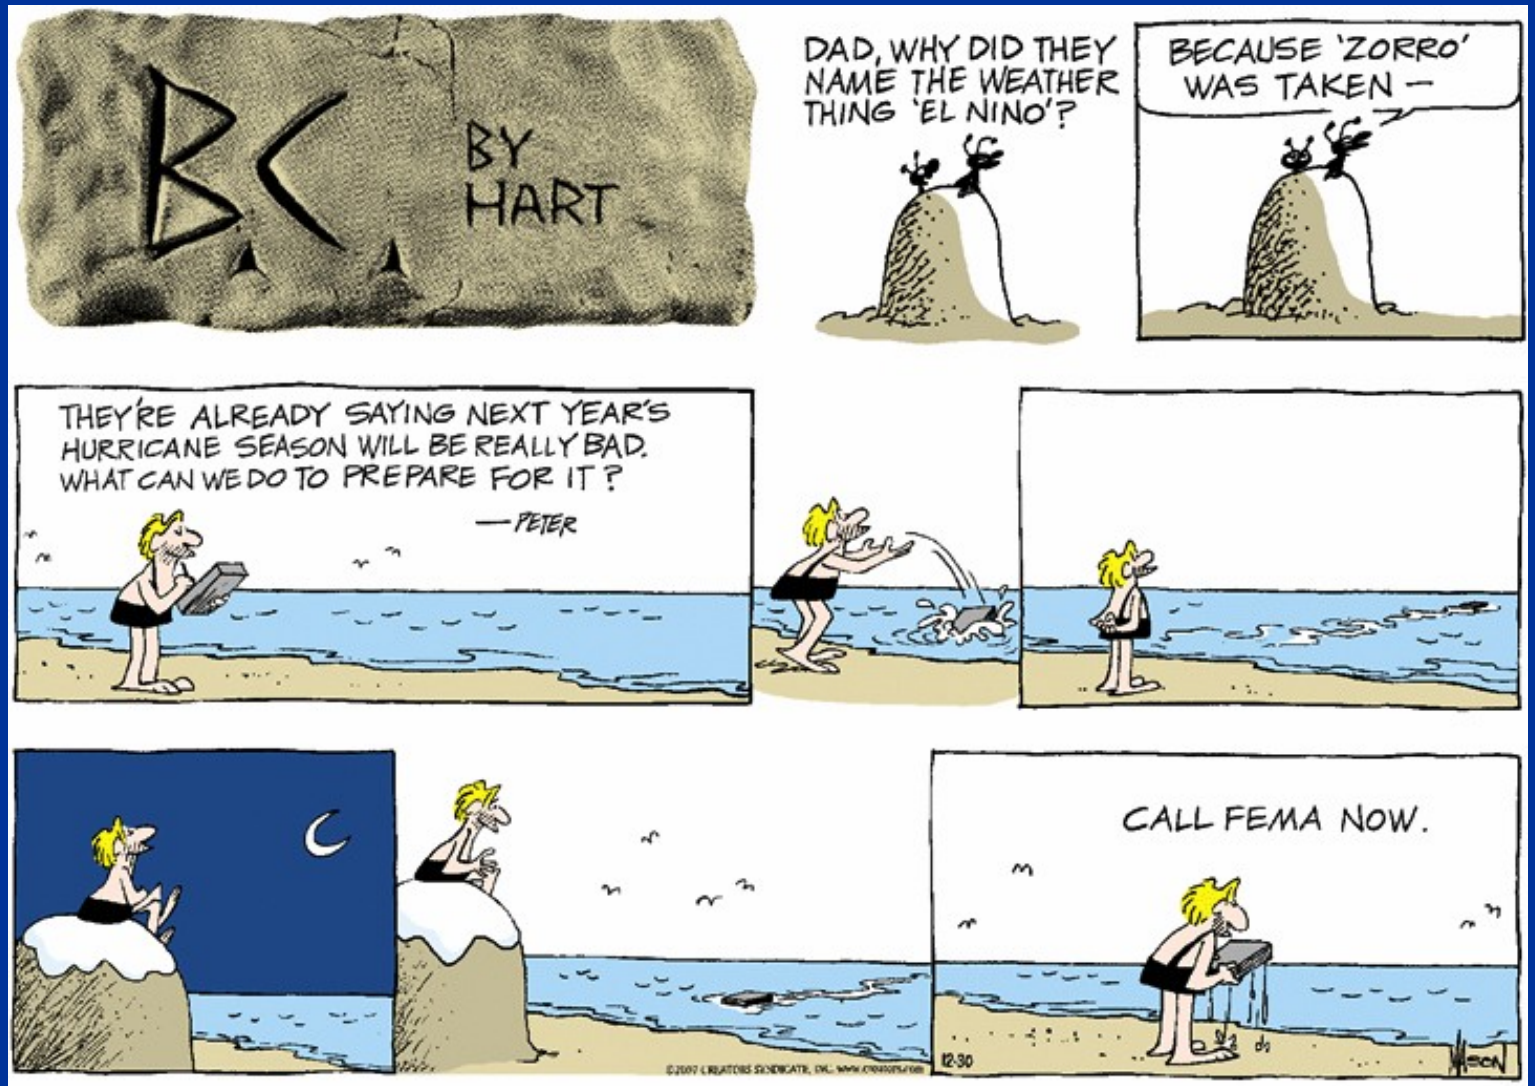
FEMA/ICCOH Partnerships

- National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration
- National Weather Service
- National Hurricane Center
- United States Army Corps of Engineers
- United States Department of Transportation
- State Emergency Management Agencies
- National Emergency Management Association
- The American Red Cross

FEMA

FEMA

FEMA



B.C.
BY HART
DAD, WHY DID THEY NAME THE WEATHER THING 'EL NINO'?
BECAUSE 'ZORRO' WAS TAKEN —
THEY'RE ALREADY SAYING NEXT YEAR'S HURRICANE SEASON WILL BE REALLY BAD. WHAT CAN WE DO TO PREPARE FOR IT?
—PETER
CALL FEMA NOW.
12-30

Copyright ©2007 Creators Syndicate, Inc.

FEMA